

Welcome to May's Newsletter 2025 Edition No. 85

Hello, and welcome to May's Newsletter.

Firstly, I would like to let you know of up and coming events we have planned. We have Peter Collins returning to entertain us, as he was such a hit on his last visit. He will be here on 12th May at 11am. Please come and join us and have sing along or a dance.

Northeast Producers will be with us on 27th May at 3.45pm with their 'Summer Panto'.

The summer shows are always packed full of all those well known songs that we all love to sing along to and their shows are hugely interactive. Our residents and families will be able to have a good old sing song, as well as having the pleasure of watching and getting involved with a piece of theatre. This show is full of popular music such as, 'If I knew you were coming, I'd have baked a cake', 'The Shoop Song', 'Then he kissed me', 'Life is a Cabaret', 'Get Happy' and Many more; and as always is delivered to our audiences in the traditional Northeast Producers style - engaging and interactive.

Scott Arms Dental Practice will be visiting on 15th May for our annual visit. They will be examining all residents to ensure that their teeth, or dentures, are in good health and good repair. The price of an exam will be £27.40 and any further treatment will fall into their bands - this will be discussed with you at the time. If any of our residents have an exemption form, please inform the office as soon as you can. Than k you!

Activities we have enjoyed together

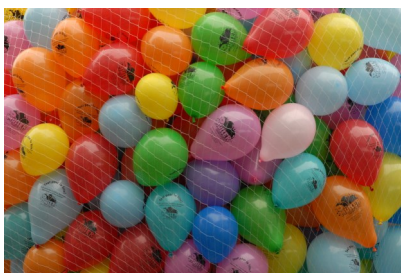

Our residents have been enjoying the sunshine with a few trips to the park to feed the ducks. They have also had several trips down to the local shop to buy some goodies of their choosing.

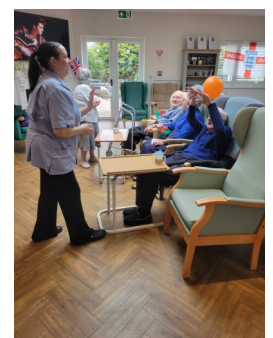

It's a lovely feeling to get out in the sunshine, but can we please request that you purchase a sun hat and some sun cream, because we are hopefully going to be able to use the court yard soon. We are also planning on going out into the community more as the weather gets warmer. We need to protect the fragility of their skin. Thank you for your support.

The sweetie Trolley will always be a favourite. Who doesn't love a chocolate bar or a quarter of mints?! Plenty to choose from. Enjoy!!

Balloon Bash—a bit of light exercise to rid those extra chocolate bars and sweets. It also helps with hand eye coordination, as well as having some fun along the way. I'm sure it wasn't just the balloons that got bashed !!

There is always art work on the go at Digby Manor. We love to get the pens and the paints out. Our residents are always working towards different display boards, like the one below for Easter.

Maureen and Beryl are our champion artists and they are always producing beautiful work. It is great to see Janet and Hazel taking part as well. Good job guys!

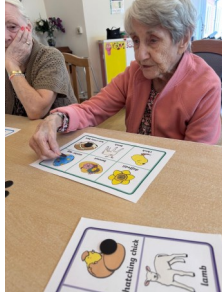

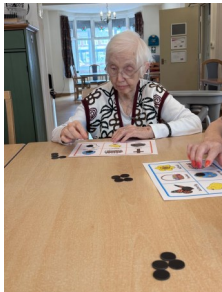

Happy Easter Everybody

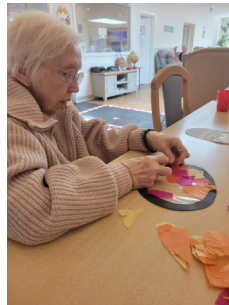

Enjoy your chocolate! A little gift from the Easter Bunny. Lovely Easter hats.

Maureen you have already started!!

As soon as Jane found out there was chocolate as a prize for the Easter Bingo, she had to join in and win!! Luckily there were a few eggs!!

Nice work Kath!

Easter treats for the staff and residents from Cherrie and Carole—Thank you so much! We all enjoyed a munch.

Our Pen pal friends posted Easter cards to our residents, wishing them Easter blessings. Our residents were touched and loved reading them. Thank you again for the time you take to communicate with our wonderful residents.

Around the world - a great conversational activity to stimulate the brain and recall memories.

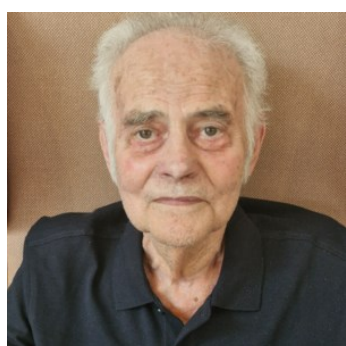

A little light baking. A few cup cakes to have with afternoon tea. Who gets to lick the spoon?!

Congratulations!

Congratulations to our team, and all of our residents, who proudly display our two new awards for 2025! One from Global 100 winning 'Best Residential Care home for 2025, and one from Care homes.co.uk for being in the 'Top 20 Care Homes in the West Midlands'. A big achievement for everyone's hard work! Well done!

Goodbye

We would like to say goodbye to our friend John, who has sadly gained his wings and can fly freely now. You will be missed by us all. God bless and rest easy.
